June 28- How to Build a Quality Orchid Collection by Jeff Adkins.

Jeff is an AOS Judge and third generation orchid grower. He worked with a commercial nursery in Miami for many years until it closed after hurricane damage. Jeff, who has grown orchids for more than 30 years, then moved to Orlando where he opened Adkins Orchids. He grows mostly "showy" Cattleyas, Dendrobiums and Vandas and will be selling some of his plants.

St. Joan of Arc Catholic Church in Spring Hill,

The FOURTH Saturday of the month

12PM Meeting starts —11am to 12pm social hour

President's Message

Hi everyone,

Our annual orchid show is in the books. It was a great show this year, with beautiful plants arranged for their best presentation by our wonderful show workers. Despite the difficulty of finding the show due to a late-arriving carnival on the church's grounds, our vendors did well enough and we did manage to make a small profit from the event. More importantly, we awarded nearly 80 ribbons to winning plants in their classes, six trophies for very special plants, and six

AOS awards! I want to congratulate all those winners. You can find a complete list of all the awards later in this newsletter. We also got several new members during the show, and we welcome you all into the fold!

Special congratulations to Susan Kimmel, who got her first two AOS awards, both AM's; to Bella Roberts for her AM/AOS award; and to myself for an AM/AOS and for the Best In Show trophy for an NCOS member.

A HUGE Thank You to everyone who worked to make this such a fun show!

The church has recognized that the last-minute carnival had a bad effect on our attendance. They've expressed their apologies for that and have given us some special consideration for our show next year, which will be held on March 20th through 22nd, 2026.

Our re-potting workshop was also a great success this past weekend. Attendance was great, and we got several more new members. I think everyone had a good time and learned a lot about how to repot or mount your orchids. I hope that all of you now feel more comfortable with repotting your precious babies. It's not really all that hard, and your plants will happily reward you with new growth and more flowers. Yes, it's true that they might not appreciate your efforts and you might lose one now and then. But I believe those are plants are ones that would have died anyway, being beyond recovery.

We're near the end of the best time for re-potting as we go into June. Your plants will be putting on vigorous new growth over the next few months. If you divide a plant when repotting it, the divisions will have time to become established by the time our auction rolls around on August 23rd. I hope you'll consider giving us some of those divisions to put into our auction. It's those special plants that make our auction so special to prospective bidders, since many are plants that are hard to find in the trade.

Best wishes, and hope to see you all at our next meeting on June 28th.

Matt

For the Love of Orchids. The beautiful and vibrantly colored display at the Show. Good job to all those who helped put the display together!

APS Judges were Ron McHatton, Ken Roberts, Vicky Leighy and student Judge Keith Emig. NCOS members clerks for this team were Sue Kimmel and Nancy Huff.

Ron McHatton fills many rolls with the AOS. Besides the judging role he accomplished today, he holds the monthly AOS Greenhouse Chat livestream which is very informative.

There were 3 or 4 other judging teams.

Plans for a member's garden tour

Exciting news for members!!! A tour of some of our member gardens is being planned. The tour will take place in the fall, so watch the Keiki for more information. This event is a membership benefit, and wonderful opportunity for members to speak with, and learn from, other orchid growers in our Club.

We are looking for members who would like to open their garden, greenhouse, orchid room, or where ever you grow your orchids—to other members who are interested in visiting these gardens. It doesn't have to be peak bloom time, perhaps you have other interesting information to share as well. This might include how you protect your orchids in the winter, your thoughts on pest control, and tips and tricks to share with others.

If you prefer to have a write-up in the Keiki only, that's fine too. This is an option to share your orchid garden and knowledge as well.

If you would like to open your garden for members to view or read about in the Keiki, or have any questions, please let me know by emailing me at deemail@tampabay.rr.com.
